

THE ORPHANS' HOME BOARD

The removal of Mr. Williams by the Board having in charge the management of the Home is merely an official act always within the province of the Board to perform.

The Board appointed Mr. Williams and finding that he did not meet their expectations as a manager of the Home they have notified him that his resignation is in order to take effect Feb. 1, 1889.

The APPEAL has been asked many times during Mr. Williams' incumbency to publish criticisms of the methods employed by him in his conduct of the institution, but has generally declined to accede to these requests except where the parties making the charges were willing and able to assume all responsibility. Some years ago the APPEAL made an expose of a former manager of the Institution and it raised such a hue and cry from persons who were ignorant of the facts that we decided in the future to let time and not the APPEAL bring the facts to the surface.

Time did show that the APPEAL was correct as it generally does in such cases. While we have no comments to make in this instance we would advise the friends of Mr. Williams to allow the Board to handle the matter as they are duly and legally qualified and have not acted without due consideration of the subject. They know just what they are about and are fully prepared to show good cause for their action if anybody is anxious to know the whys and wherefores of the case.

Mr Williams is charged with no illegal act by the Board but simply an inadaptability to properly conduct the institution in a manner intended to promote the welfare of the inmates.

The move was made in the best interests of the State, and generally indorsed by the community.

NO OPPOSITION.

A committee of the Nevada Legislature will visit Sacramento next Monday for the purpose of urging the California law makers to pass a law prohibiting the depositing of sawdust into the Truckee river.

We are authorized to state that there will be no opposition to the passage of the bill made by the millmen of the vicinity, and those who expect to get any portion of a sack on that account will get fooled. It is not probable that a millman or a representative of one will be in Sacramento during the legislative session.

The millmen have been harrassed enough by threats in the matter. A bill has been introduced to prohibit the putting of sawdust into streams, and the Nevada committee can secure the passage of the bill if they try.

It will hurt some of our millmen, but they will abide the law, and if necessary will shut down their mills.

The Nevada people who are the cause of this unfriendly legislation need expect no favors of our lumbermen in the matter of irrigation. It is in their power to let much water go to waste in the Spring which is usually stored until late in the Summer, when it is useful to the ranchers near Reno. These ranchers might find themselves without water next summer, and with consequent short crops.

No doubt but that the millmen would be willing to compromise on this sawdust matter, but there seems to be a disposition on the part of the Nevada people to take the pound of flesh. If it is the Shylock game that they are playing, they should bear in mind the fate that befel Shylock.—Truckee Republican.

—Bancroft & Co., of San Francisco have introduced a bill here to enable them to do a lot of printing which is now being very well done by the State. Such a bill should be indefinitely postponed.

—While a railroad company was tearing up a bridge near Evansville on Saturday, the bridge precipitated twenty men into the river, and twelve were drowned.
